Make Your Own Re-Usable Advent Calendar Book

Sunday 12th November, 2pm – 5pm

For ages 8+ (one child and one adult)
£40 per pair

Do you purchase a brand new Advent Calendar every year? Here is your chance to make one that will live on for many Christmases to come! In this festive workshop you will work with Maria to create your very own Advent Calendar Book, full of envelopes in which you can tuck chocolates, challenges, or tiny presents. This workshop gives two participants from different generations the opportunity to be creative together, as each child needs an accompanying adult. We welcome all combinations of friends and family, and each participant will come away with their own calendar!

Make Your Own Christmas Cards and Festive Wrapping!

Sunday 19th November, 2pm – 5pm

Christmas linocut printmaking class for children, 7-12 yrs, £40

Do you want to go eco this year and stay away from all that plastic glitter when you wrap your presents? Then join our printmaking workshops to create your own Christmas cards, wrapping paper, and labels! Guided by expert tutor Catherine, you'll create your own beautiful linocuts, creating some own-brand Christmas paper goods to impress your family with on the 25th December. This is the perfect way to get in the festive mood!

Christmas Wreathmaking, mulled wine and mince pies!

Friday 24th November, 6.30 – 9pm

Adults, £75

Our hugely popular festive tradition returns. Work with renowned local florist Clare Oliver to learn the art of wreath making and create a beautiful wreath of natural materials and gorgeous decorations to adorn your front door and impress your friends and neighbours! Wash it all down with a delicious homemade mince pie and aromatic mulled wine.

The Nutcracker Concert

Sunday 17th December, 2pm and 3.30pm

Adults £12, Children £6, under 2s free.

The Conservatoire's magical interpretation of this Christmas classic returns, perfect for families to get into the festive spirit. Join soprano Mairéad Sheerin, flautist Klio Blonz and pianist Grace Mo in this family concert of spoken word, piano and flute. Get lost in the magic of Clara, the Sugar Plum Fairy, Mouse King and Nutcracker himself.
